Meet the New FFA State Officers!

Retired Tennessee Farm Bureau President Lacy Upchurch was recognized during the 88th Tennessee FFA State Convention for his service to the Foundation Sponsoring Committee from 2006 until 2015. He and his wife Kay and several Farm Bureau employees were present. Mr. Upchurch received a plaque and was recognized by Sponsoring Committee Chairman David Lynn and Commissioner of Agriculture Julius Johnson. Click the link above to watch the video that was played during convention.

Farm Credit Turns 100: Farm Credit Mid-America representatives were on hand Monday, March 21 for a special presentation in recognition of the 100th anniversary of the founding of the Farm Credit System. Pictured above with the State Officer team from left are: David Lynn and Matt Neal of Farm Credit Mid-America.

Stellar State Officer Candidates: 23 chapters were represented with a candidate in the Tennessee State Officer Candidate process, which consists of three interviews before a 12 member Nominating Committee, a test and a letter writing exercise. Ultimately, only 8 officers could be elected, but the field of candidates was quite impressive. The short video above highlights all candidates who ran.

VIP Experience: 30 special guests participated in the Foundation's VIP Experience, which is designed to make attending convention an easy and enjoyable experience for our sponsors and board members. This photo was taken during Tuesday evening's Alumni Banquet as VIPs enjoyed reserved seating together.
