WILSON CENTRAL WINS OUTSTANDING CHAPTER AT STATE FFA CAMP

DOYLE, TN – The Wilson Central Future Farmers of America (FFA) Chapter of Wilson County was presented with the Outstanding Chapter Award at Camp Clements on May 31st, 2019. Wilson Central brought with them 34 members, 3 advisors, and 1 guest. More than 200 students, advisors and guests attended what was the first of seven weeks of Leadership Training Camp offered to the Tennessee FFA membership.

Chapters must be active in officer classes, specialty classes, have a representative elected to Camp Council, and have a large sum of their members qualify for the gold leadership award to be considered for the Outstanding Chapter Award.

The Wilson Central FFA chapter took home several honors including: Camp Council Vice-President, KJ Mills; third in Quiz Contest, Madison McDonald; and third place in Extemporaneous Public Speaking, Garrett Jennings.

The Wilson Central FFA officers for Camp Clements were: President, KJ Mills; Vice Presidents, Simone Allen, Regan Black, and Madison McDonald; Secretary, Reagan Smithing; Treasurer, Hannah Hungate; Reporter, Libbi Booker; Sentinel, Avery McClure; Chaplain, Gunner Gossett; Historian, Taylor Vivrette; and Parliamentarian, Brooke Martin. Multiple Junior Chapter Officers were present as well. The chapter's advisors are Matt Farris, Bonnie Holman, and Benny McDonald.

FFA makes a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education. Nationally, there are 669,989 FFA members, aged 12-21. The Tennessee FFA Association is comprised of 14,084 members from 214 high school chapters, 7 middle school chapters, and 8 collegiate chapters from across the state of Tennessee.
