MCEWEN WINS OUTSTANDING CHAPTER AT STATE FFA CAMP

DOYLE, TN – The McEwen Future Farmers of America (FFA) Chapter of Humphreys County was presented with the Outstanding Chapter Award at Camp Clements on June 21st, 2019. McEwen brought with them 28 members and 2 advisors. More than 200 students, advisors, and guests attended what was the fourth of seven weeks of Leadership Training Camp offered to the Tennessee FFA membership.

Chapters must be active in officer classes, specialty classes, have a representative elected to Camp Council, and have a large sum of their members qualify for the gold leadership award to be considered for the Outstanding Chapter Award.

The McEwen FFA Chapter took home several honors including 11 athletic awards and 7 Gold-Level Leadership Awards. McEwen took first place in Quiz Bowl, and Lena Sims represented McEwen as Camp Council President.

The McEwen FFA officers who performed Opening and Closing Ceremonies for Camp Clements were: President, Lena Sims; Vice Presidents, Sarah Worley and Gracie Krone; Secretary, Nadia Tippet; Treasurer, Isabelle Merickle; Reporter, Sarah Tyler; and Sentinel, Jordan Stringfield. The chapter's advisors are Glenn Ross and Joe Greene.

FFA makes a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education. Nationally, there are 669,989 FFA members, aged 12-21. The Tennessee FFA Association is comprised of 14,084 members from 214 high school chapters, 7 middle school chapters, and 8 collegiate chapters from across the state of Tennessee.
