STEWARTS CREEK WINS OUTSTANDING OFFICER TEAM AT STATE FFA CAMP

DOYLE, TN – The Stewarts Creek Future Farmers of America (FFA) Chapter of Rutherford County was presented with the Outstanding Officer Team Award at Camp Clements on June 28th, 2019. Stewarts Creek brought with them 9 members and 2 advisors. More than 200 students, advisors and guests attended what was the fifth of seven weeks of Leadership Training Camp offered to the Tennessee FFA membership.

Chapter officer teams must be active in officer classes, specialty classes, have a representative elected to Camp Council, and have a large sum of their members qualify for the gold leadership award to be considered for the Outstanding Officer Team Award.

The Stewarts Creek FFA officers in attendance were Macy Browning, Sammy Walter, Kaitlin Shuler, Harrison Falcofsky, Wyatt Blanks, and Abby Whitlock. Stewarts Creek also left with several additional honors including: Camp Council President, Harrison Falcofsky; 3rd in Quiz Contest, Harrison Falcofsky; 2nd in Quiz Bowl, Abby Whitlock, Sammy Walter, Harrison Falcofsky, Wyatt Blanks; and finalist in Extemporaneous Public Speaking, Sammy Walter. The chapter advisors are Gina Stewart and Amy Olt.

FFA makes a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth, and career success through agricultural education. Nationally, there are 669,989 FFA members, aged 12-21. The Tennessee FFA Association is comprised of 14,084 members from 214 high school chapters, 7 middle school chapters, and 8 collegiate chapters from across the state of Tennessee.
