

2023 National Officer Candidate Screening Committee Application

Those interested in serving on the National Officer Candidate Screening (NOCS) Committee should complete this application. Those serving on the NOCS Committee will select the 2023 National FFA Officer candidate for Tennessee. Return completed forms to Candidate Coordination Committee Chairman Amy Beckham at abeckham@tbf.com no later than April 30, 2023.

1. Name (first and last): _____
 2. University or School you attend: _____
 3. E-mail address: _____
 4. Phone Number: _____
 5. Have you served on the National Officer Candidate Selection nominating committee in the past and if yes, what year? _____
 6. Have you served or are you serving as a Regional Officer? If yes, indicate the years and office. _____

The National FFA Officer Selection process will occur on May 19, 2023 at Tennessee Farm Bureau's headquarters in Columbia. Meals will be provided for this event. A full schedule will be sent to the committee prior to the screening. This is an event that will require you to work with other current and past FFA members, collegiate FFA members and adult representatives to select the individual who will represent Tennessee as a National FFA Officer Candidate in 2023.

Using no more than one page total, answer the following:

1. Indicate the qualities you feel a National FFA Officer candidate should possess.
2. Explain why you want to serve on this NOCS committee.

All applicants are encouraged to read the National Officer Candidate rules, which can be found on tnffa.org in the downloads section. Applicants are also encouraged to submit their applications as a PDF to maintain formatting.
