Bylaws

Approved March 25, 2024
97th Tennessee FFA Convention

Future Farmers of Tennessee

Bylaws

Article I

Name

The name of the organization shall be the Future Farmers of Tennessee, hereafter referred to as the Tennessee FFA. Recognized chapters of the organization may officially use the letters “FFA” and/or “Future Farmers of America” to designate the organization, its chapters, or members.

Article II

Objectives

The objectives of the organization shall be consistent with the organization’s federal charter, Public Law 116-7 (formerly Public Laws 105-225 and 81-740). The organization shall cooperate with national and state government agencies and officials in career and technical education to accomplish the following objectives:

1. To be an integral component of instruction in agricultural education, including without limitation, agriculture, food, and natural resources. As such, the corporation shall be intra-curricular to the agricultural education program, and will work with contextual classroom/laboratory instruction and work-based experiential learning in furtherance of a complete and comprehensive agricultural education program;
2. To be an integral component in agricultural education, to prepare students for successful entry into productive careers in agriculture, food and natural resources, or connect students to relevant postsecondary educational pathways, focusing on the complete delivery of classroom and laboratory instruction, work-based experiential learning and leadership development;
3. To be a resource and support organization that does not select, control or supervise state association, local chapter or individual member activities. The corporation will develop educational materials, programs, services and events as a service to state and local agricultural education agencies;
4. To seek and promote inclusion and diversity in its membership, leadership and staff to reflect the corporation’s belief in the value of all human beings;
5. To create, foster and assist subsidiary chapters in state-or territory-approved agricultural educational programs and associations of those chapters in the States, territories, and possessions of the United States;
6. To build character and develop competent and assertive agricultural leadership;
7. To increase awareness of the global and technological importance of agriculture, food and natural resources and its contribution to our well-being;

8. To promote the intelligent choice and establishment of a career in agriculture, food and natural resources;
9. To make available to state associations, local chapters and members, all official supplies, equipment, programs and services of the corporation;
10. To cooperate with others, including state boards and officials for career and technical education, in accomplishing the foregoing purposes; and
11. To engage in other activities, consistent with these purposes, determined by the governing body to be for the best interests of the corporation.

Article III

Organization

Section A.

The Future Farmers of Tennessee is the organization of, by, and for students in school-based agricultural education (SBAE) programs. It shall consist of chartered chapters. More than one chapter may be chartered in a school when deemed appropriate by the state governing body.

Section B.

Chapters of the Tennessee FFA shall be chartered only in such schools where recognized systematic instruction in agricultural education is offered under the guidance of Tennessee Department of Education. Such chapters shall operate as an integral part of the instructional program of agricultural education.

Schools with large enrollments and/or multiple programs in agricultural education may establish subsidiary chapters of the parent chapter. Each subsidiary chapter shall be organized and operated in accordance with all the provisions of the national, state, and local constitutions and/or bylaws. Subsidiary chapters shall be coordinated by the officers and advisors of the parent chapter.

Article IV

Procedures for Determining Standing of Chapters

Section A.

A chapter shall be in good standing with the Tennessee FFA when the following conditions are met:

1. All annual state and national dues have been paid to the Tennessee FFA by February 1 of each year. The Tennessee FFA membership year runs from August 1 to July 31.
2. All reports have been submitted as requested by the Tennessee FFA.

3. Provisions of the chapter constitution and/or bylaws do not conflict with the Tennessee or National FFA Constitution and Bylaws and chapter activities are in harmony with the ideals and purposes of the Tennessee Association of Future Farmers of America and the National FFA Organization.

Section B.

The governing body of the state association shall have the power to suspend the charter of any chapter, which violates the State or National FFA Constitution and Bylaws. A report on all suspensions shall be presented to the delegates at the next succeeding state convention. In the event a chapter is not in good standing with the state association at the time of the opening of a state convention, the delegates in session at the state convention shall have the power, upon recommendation of the state association governing body, to withdraw the charter and refuse such chapter official representation at the state convention. When such action is taken, the chapter in question and members thereof shall be denied privileges of membership in the state association. Upon meeting the requirements for good standing, a chapter may be reinstated by action of the state association governing body.

In the event a local department of agricultural education is discontinued, its chartered FFA chapter may officially operate for a period not to exceed three years (36 months) from the date of discontinuance, provided proper supervision is given by a person having the approval of the local school administrator and the state FFA advisor. The chapter's charter must be surrendered to the state advisor at the end of the period if a local department of agricultural education is not in operation at that time.

Article V

Members

Section A.

Membership in the Tennessee FFA Association shall be of three types: active, alumni, and honorary.

Section B. Active membership

To be eligible for active membership in a chartered FFA chapter, a student must be enrolled in a school-based agricultural education program. The Tennessee FFA Association considers "school-based agricultural education programs" to be grades 6-12. To become an active member and retain membership, a student must:

1. While in school, be enrolled in at least one agricultural education course during the school year and/or follow a planned course of study; either course must include a supervised agricultural experience program, the objective of which is preparation for an agricultural career.
2. Show an interest in the affairs of the organization by attending meetings, striving for degrees of membership, and participating in other organized activities of the chapter.
3. Pay all current state and national dues by the date determined by the chapter.

4. Display conduct consistent with the ideals and purposes of the National FFA Organization.

A member may retain active membership until November 30, following the fourth National FFA Convention after graduation from high school.

A member in good standing at the time of induction into the armed forces of the United States of America shall be in good standing during the period of active service without further payment of dues or attendance at meetings. Time spent in the armed forces shall not be considered as elapsed time in determining the maximum period for four conventions following graduation from high school or leaving high school. Members using this waiver of service time for the purpose of maintaining active membership for application for advanced degrees of membership must resume active participation within six months after having been honorably discharged from military service and indicate such a desire by paying dues and attending meetings. Members participating in a six-month armed services program shall be eligible for one full year of extended membership. No individual may retain active membership beyond his or her twenty-third birthday.

Section C. Alumni Membership

Alumni Membership is open to former active members, and honorary members, present and former professional agricultural educators, and parents of FFA members, and others interested in and supportive of the FFA.

Section D. Honorary Membership

Farmers, school superintendents, principals, members of boards of education, chapter advisors, teachers, staff members in agricultural education, business people, and others who are helping to advance agricultural education and the FFA and who have rendered outstanding service, maybe elected to honorary membership by a majority vote of the members present at any regular meeting or convention. Honorary membership shall be limited to the Honorary Chapter FFA Degree in the local chapter, Honorary State FFA Degree in the state association, and the Honorary American FFA Degree in the national organization.

Article VI

Degrees of Membership

Section A. Degrees of Active Membership

There shall be five degrees of active membership based upon achievements. These grades are: (a) Discovery FFA Degree, (b) Greenhand FFA Degree, (c) Chapter FFA Degree, (d) State FFA Degree and (e) American FFA Degree.

Section B. Discovery FFA Degree

On meeting the minimum qualifications as set forth in the National Constitution, the Discovery FFA Degree may be conferred by the chapter.

Section C. Greenhand FFA Degree

On meeting the minimum qualifications as set forth in the National Constitution, the Greenhand FFA Degree may be conferred by the chapter.

Section D. Chapter FFA Degree

On meeting the minimum qualifications as set forth in the National Constitution, the Chapter FFA Degree may be conferred by the chapter.

Section E. State FFA Degree

On meeting the minimum qualifications as set forth in the National Constitution, the State FFA Degree may be conferred by the State Association.

Section F. American FFA Degree
